TO AMEND SECTION 1272 OF THE REVISED LAWS OF HAWAII RELATING TO PROCEDURE FOR ENFORCING PAYMENT OF DELINQUENT TAXES ASSESSED AGAINST UNKNOWN OR NON-RESIDENT PERSONS.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 1272 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 1272. In all cases where taxes assessed to persons unknown or to non-residents of the taxation division are delinquent and unpaid when due, action may be brought by the Assessor of such division or his deputy in the District Court of the District in which the assessment was made and the defendant may be named as unknown or by name if known and a non-resident, as the case may be. In any such case, it shall be a good and sufficient service of summons, binding on all parties in interest, if under the order of the Magistrate of the District Court the title and the substance of the action and summons, including a return day not less than three weeks from the date of the issuance of such summons and calling on all parties in interest to appear and defend, shall be published once a week for three consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the Territory, and the Magistrates of the District Courts of the Territory are given jurisdiction to order such service. In actions against non-resident delinquents, a certified copy of the published notice shall be deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address of such person. In such summons and in the notice published, where the defendant is named as unknown, a brief description of the property assessed shall be given. All such actions shall be heard and determined in the same manner as though personal service was obtained and judgment may be entered and execution issued and levied upon property for which the tax was assessed or upon any property of such unknown or non-resident delinquent as may be found within such District."

SECTION 2. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

Approved this 13th day of March, A. D. 1911.

WALTER F. FREAR,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.
